SNBT HOME

Contact: Laura E. Rowe
Marketing Officer
laura.rowe@snbt.com
715.735.2380

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Date: June 7, 2013

SNBT Celebrates Area Scholars

The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT) recently awarded scholarships totaling over $13,700 to local high school, college and university students. These scholarships recognize the achievements of exceptional area students.

A group of scholarship recipients who attended a reception at SNBT last week.
Front Row, left to right Brittany Botbyl, Olivia Isaacson, Cayla Charlesworth, Courtney Delgoffe.
Back Row, left to right Sara Henes, Michelle Kienitz, Brandon Bebo, Lillian Duffrin, Makayla DeBacker.

The Louis W. Staudenmaier Scholarship is named in honor of the bank's former president who served from 1952 through 1980. High school graduates who received this award are:

- Kellie McCarthy of Menominee High School. She will be attending University of Michigan to study Political Science.
- Chelsea Turcotte of Stephenson High School. She plans to attend NWTC – Green Bay to study Diagnostic Medical Stenography.
- Richardo Jaimes of Marinette High School. He will be attending Ripon College to study Environmental Science and Social Work.
- Austin Votis of Peshtigo High School. He plans to attend Ripon College and major in English.
- Lillian Duffrin of St. Thomas Aquinas Academy. She will attend University of Michigan and study Nursing and Anesthesia.
- Andrea Cisar of Oconto High School. She plans to attend UW-Whitewater and major in Business & Information Technology.

Contact: Laura E. Rowe
Marketing Officer
laura.rowe@snbt.com
715.735.2380

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Date: June 7, 2013

- Sara Wickman of Wausaukee High School. She plans to attend UW-Oshkosh to study Biology and Pre-Denistry.
- Cole Martz of Crivitz High School. He will be attending Utah Valley University to study Aviation Science and become a Professional Pilot.

The Mary L. Staudenmaier Scholarship was created by, and named after the bank's recently retired Chairman. Recipients of this award are:

- Sara Henes of Menominee High School. She will attend NWTC to study Nursing.
- Olivia Isaacson of Menominee High School. She plans to attend Minnesota State University to major in Graphic Design.

The scholarship recipients from University of Wisconsin-Marinette are:

- Makayla DeBacker a graduate of Carney Nadeau High School, she will be studying Pre-Law.
- Katie Falk of Peshtigo, a current UW-Marinette student studying Theatre Arts.
- Cayla Charlesworth of Marinette, a current UW-Marinette student studying Nursing.

SNBT also funds scholarships at NWTC, those recipients will be chosen prior to the fall semester.

Also honored by SNBT are a group of Menominee High School graduates who received the Robert & Caroline Fernstrum Scholarship including:

- Josh Marcin who will attend Michigan Tech University to study Engineering.
- Courtney Delgoffe who will attend Michigan State University for Pre-Med.
- Michelle Kienitz who will attend Northern Michigan University to study Health Administration.
- Amber Mueller who will attend Central Michigan University to study Physical Therapy.
- Brandon Bebo who will attend NWTC for Fire Protection.
- Brittany Botbyl who will attend UW-Marinette to study Business.
- Adam Schacht who will attend UW-Marinette followed by Michigan Tech University to study Music Production & Recording.

The scholarship program is one way SNBT supports youth education, others include sponsoring "Newspaper in Education", hosting bank tours, and making classroom presentations such as "Teach Children to Save Day" and "Get Smart About Credit Day".