SNBT Board of Directors: Staudenmaier Elected

Michael Staudenmaier has been elected as the newest member of The Stephenson National Bank & Trust board of directors.

Staudenmaier, a Wisconsin native, is currently employed as the Fiscal Manager at the Alternative Schools Network (ASN) of Chicago. ASN is a not-for-profit organization that supports community based and community-run programs, providing funding and technical assistance to a variety of alternative high schools throughout the Chicago area.

He received his Bachelor's Degree in Philosophy from Carleton College, Minn. and subsequently obtained his license as a Certified Public Accountant in the state of Illinois.

His volunteer work includes providing accounting services for a range of small non-profits that deal with housing, education, and youth services. Michael and his wife Anne reside in Chicago with their two children.

Other SNBT directors are: James G. Beyer, vice president of The Motor Company; Michele L. Biehl, vice president of Biehl Construction Co., Inc.; C. Clifford Combs, vice president of C & L Mobile Home Sales, Inc.; William H. Higley, president of W.H. Higley Consulting, LLC; Keith Killen, president of M&M Plaza Enterprises, LLC; Larry Melgary, president of Northern Coatings and Chemical Company; Susan J. Polito, president of Stang Enterprises; John K. Reinke, president and trust officer of SNBT; and Mary L. Staudenmaier, chairman of the board of SNBT.

SNBT is a 136-year old independent community bank with assets of $277 million and Trust assets exceeding $280 million. Offices are located in Marinette and Oconto, Wis. and Menominee, Mich. For more information about SNBT visit www.snbt.com.
