Sundquist Earns Bank Award for Notable Service

Donna Sundquist recently received the 2010 Mary L. Staudenmaier WINGS (Worthy Individual Noted for Generous Service) Award. Named in honor of The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT) chairman of the board, the award celebrates an employee's outstanding commitment to community service.

"This award is named in honor of our leading community servant – Mary Staudenmaier," explained John Reinke, SNBT president. "Her record of community involvement is almost unparalleled in our area."

Sundquist, SNBT receptionist, received the WINGS Award due to her exceptional level of community service. She pledged 170 hours of community service among three organizations: Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church and School, Greater M&M YMCA, and Marinette Youth Softball.

To recognize her accomplishment, Sundquist received the WINGS plaque and her name and photograph will be added to the WINGS display in the Marinette location. In addition, the bank has made a $500 contribution in her name to Trinity Evangelical Lutheran School - the organization of her choice.

Sundquist joined SNBT as receptionist in 2004. In this position, she positively represents the bank to people on the phone and in person by greeting and directing them in a courteous and professional manner. In addition to her daily tasks, she is responsible for offering administrative support and assisting with special events.

She is a past recipient of the bank's Award of Excellence, an award given to employees who demonstrate excellence in customer service, reliability, responsiveness to customers' and bank employees' needs, superior job knowledge, professionalism, motivation, and productivity.

She earned her Associate of Science degree from University of Wisconsin-Marinette and attended University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point. She currently lives in Marinette with her husband Clyde and has 5 adult children.

SNBT encourages bank employees to be active in the community, serving on boards of directors, volunteering in schools, and a variety of non-profit organizations.
