Frederiksen and Nelson Receive Bank Awards of Excellence

Debbie Frederiksen and Christine Nelson have each received The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT) Award of Excellence. Created in 1988, the award is given to two employees annually. Recipients are nominated by their co-workers for demonstrating excellence in customer service, reliability, responsiveness to customers' and bank employees' needs, superior job knowledge, professionalism, motivation, and productivity.

The first award was given to Frederiksen for consistently exceeding customers' expectations. She is Mortgage Lender at the SNBT Marinette office where she is responsible for meeting customers' needs through originating mortgage and consumer loans, as well as assisting customers with other bank products and services. Frederiksen has more than 25 years of banking experience. In addition, she has taken numerous classes toward enhancing her banking degree.

Her community service includes volunteering for Marinette Menominee Area Chamber of Commerce, Human Services, and as a member of Resurrection Parish. She has previously served on the Chamber's Education Committee and was a member of the Marinette Woman's Club. Frederiksen lives in Menominee and has four grown children.

The second award, given to Nelson, recognizes that she is an integral part of the bank as a true "go to" person. She joined the bank in 1991 and has held several positions throughout her 21 year career with SNBT. In her role as Human Resources and Operations Assistant, she is responsible for payroll processing, benefits enrollment, new employee orientation, operations projects, and information systems support.
