Early Look at Art for All

For the eleventh year, The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT) is teaming up with Art for All, Inc. to promote local artists. As part of the 18th annual art show and sale, SNBT will be hosting a Preview Week at the Menominee 10th Street office June 24 through June 28.

The preview provides the community an opportunity to see some of the art displays prior to the event. It also gives the artists an opportunity to display their work and generate more involvement for the downtown art show.

During the Preview Week, several talented artists will have their work on display in the lobby. Returning artists include: Kelly Hanson, mixed media mosaics, Ron Jackson, drawing/painting/furniture; Kathy Vincent, jewelry; Laura Hornick, jewelry/glass; and Jennifer Vanni, drawing/painting. New artists are: Jim Mans, sculpture; Anthony Strublic, drawing/painting; and Jessie Brodzinski, metal art.

“Art for All has brought a welcomed artistic element to this community and SNBT is proud to support the event throughout the last decade,” said Diane Gromoske, SNBT Assistant Branch Manager. “This sneak preview allows people to get a sense of the variety of artwork they can expect to see at Art for All.”

As part of the preview, guests can enter to win a framed photograph by the late Mark Suchovsky, an area landscape photographer. It was donated by Wendy Suchovsky and SNBT.
