Hipke Retires after 20 years with SNBT

After 20 years of dedicated service, Susie Hipke, Assistant Customer Service Supervisor, is retiring from The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT).

“Susie’s dedication and hard work has been a blessing to all of us at SNBT. Throughout the years, she has helped many people, both customers and employees,” said Daniel Peterson, SNBT Executive Vice President. “While we will truly miss her, we have the utmost confidence in our talented and committed staff. We’re just grateful to have had Susie as a co-worker and friend for the past two decades.”

To honor her, SNBT will be hosting an Open House on Friday, February 15 at the bank’s 1820 Hall Avenue, Marinette location. Refreshments will be served from 8:00am – 5:00pm and the event is open to the public.

Hipke was hired January 5, 1993 as a teller and has held numerous positions within the bank including Customer Service Representative Supervisor and Accounting Clerk. In her current position, she is responsible for overseeing the Customer Service Representatives at the Marinette office. She attended UW-Marinette and has completed the Principals of Banking course offered through Wisconsin Bankers Association.

She is a two-time recipient of the bank’s Award of Excellence. This award is given to employees who demonstrate excellence in customer service, reliability, responsiveness to customers’ and bank employees’ needs, superior job knowledge, professionalism, motivation, and productivity.

Her volunteer work includes participating with Relay for Life, actively volunteering for Peshtigo Woman’s Club, serving as a St. Mary’s Eucharistic Minister, and helping with the bank’s Teach Children to Save Day. Her other community
