

SNBT Celebrates Area Scholarship Recipients

The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT) recently awarded scholarships totaling over $14,000 to local high school, college, and university students. These scholarships recognize the achievements of outstanding area students.

The Louis W. Staudenmaier Scholarship is named in honor of the bank's former president who served from 1952 through 1980. High school graduates who received this $1,000 award are:

- Paige Minton from Marinette High School will be attending UW-Green Bay majoring in Social Work.
- Harlee Davis from Beecher-Dunbar-Pembine High School will attend Northern Michigan University and study Business.
- Jesselyn Nadolny from Peshtigo High School will be attending UW-Eau Claire majoring in Spanish Education.
- Samantha Gruszynski from Wausaukee High School will attend NWTC and study Nursing.
- Shane Bauer from Crivitz High School will attend UW-Marinette and study Business.
- Jaelyn Fluke from Menominee High School will attend UW-Oshkosh to study Business.
- Annabelle Kotecki of Coleman High School will be attending UW-Madison majoring in Environmental Engineering.
- Nicole Freele from Stephenson High School will attend Bay de Noc Community College and to major in Business.
- Sarah Hubacher from Oconto High School will attend UW-Stevens Point and study Accounting.
- Erin Ducaine from Lena High School plans to attend NWTC-Green Bay and major in Nursing.
- Marley Cariviou from St. Thomas Aquinas Academy will be attending Coe College and majoring in Kinesiology.

The Mary L. Staudenmaier Scholarship was created by, and named after SNBT's former President and Chairman. Recipients of this $1,300 award are:

- Katrina Salmen from Peshtigo High School will be attending Northern Michigan University and her major will be Pre-Med.
- Samantha Gruszynski received this scholarship in addition to the Louis W. Staudenmaier Scholarship.
- Ivy Schultz from Stephenson High School will be attending Central Michigan University and will major in Human Resources Management.

SNBT also funds scholarships at University of Wisconsin-Marinette and NWTTC. Also honored by SNBT are a group of Menominee High School graduates who received the Robert & Caroline Fernstrum Scholarship including:

- Danielle Christianson will be attending Michigan Technological University studying Medical Laboratory Science.
- Jacob Rivard will be attending Michigan Technological University majoring in Mechanical Engineering.
- Cole Hoffman will be attending Grand Valley State University studying Pharmacy.
- Kallen Wilde will be attending St. Norbert College majoring in Geology.
- Brianne Burnett will be attending UW-Marinette studying Pre-Med and Business.
- Erika Schloegel is undecided on her post-secondary education and field of study.

The following recipients are also honored by SNBT and received the D.E. Thomas Scholarship award:

- Abigail Rae Barley from Crivitz High School will attend UW-LaCrosse majoring in Medical Science.
- Chelsea Michalski from Crivitz High School will attend University of Dubuque to study Nursing.
- Anthony Paintine from Crivitz High School will attend Columbia College Chicago to study Cinema Art & Science.
- Lexi Schroeder from Crivitz High School will attend Northern Michigan University whose major is Pre-Med.
- Zachary Walters from Crivitz High School will attend UW-Marinette to study to earn a Bachelor of Science.

- Vincent Jopek from Crivitz High School will attend NWTC to study Gas Utility.
- Brandi Bousley from Beecher – Dunbar – Pembine High School will attend Michigan Technological University to study Math.
- Heather Geib from Beecher – Dunbar – Pembine High School will attend Bellin College to study Nursing.
- Wyatt Marcy from Beecher – Dunbar – Pembine High School will attend Lakeland College to study Sports Medicine/Physical Therapy.
- Madison McLain from Beecher – Dunbar – Pembine High School will attend NWTC to study Paramedic/Fire Fighting.
- Emily Arts from Beecher – Dunbar – Pembine High School will attend Northern Michigan University/Duke LifePoint Hospital to study Radiography.
- Alexia Zak from Wausaukee High School will attend NWTC majoring in General Studies to Secondary Education.
- Michael Gilbert from Wausaukee High School will attend NWTC to study Electromechanical Technology.
- Jacob Skenandore from Wausaukee High School will attend UW-Stout to study Computer Science.
- Brooke VanLaanen from Wausaukee High School will attend UW-Green Bay to study Human Biology.
- Sirina Tyler from Wausaukee High School will attend St. Norbert College to study Pre-Medical Studies.
- Alesandra Aragon from Wausaukee High School will attend Lawrence University to study Psychology and Pre-Law Studies.

Several other scholarships were also honored by SNBT. Recipients of the Herbert Kaufman Scholarship:

- Russell Salmen from Peshtigo High School will attend Dakota State University to study Cyber Operations and Computer Science.
- Chase Ramsey from Marinette High School will attend UW-Marinette to study Science.

Recipients of the Meleski Scholarship award:

- Jennifer Styczynski from Coleman High School will attend St. Norbert College to study Business Administration.
- Amalia Faudoa from Coleman High School will attend UW-Stevens Point to study Biology.

Recipients of the Herbert Kaufman Scholarship:

- Paige Florek from Marinette High School will attend UW-LaCrosse to study Chemistry Education.
- Cody VanHoff from Coleman High School will attend UW-Marinette to study Actuary Science.
- Cole Woulf from Coleman High School will attend UW-Stout to study Computer Science.
- Sydney Zablocki from Coleman High School will attend UW-Stevens Point to study Chemistry.

The scholarship program is one way SNBT supports youth education, others include: sponsoring Newspaper in Education, hosting bank tours, providing financial literacy programs, participating in Mini Business World, and making classroom presentations such as Teach Children to Save and Get Smart About Credit.