

Wroblewski and Stauss Promoted

Justin Wroblewski and Tim Stauss, Business Banking Officers at The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT), have each been promoted to the position of Assistant Vice President.

“Both Justin and Tim are extremely committed to helping SNBT deliver outstanding business services,” said Daniel J. Peterson, SNBT President & CEO. “Together with the rest of the Business Banking department, they have worked very hard to make SNBT the premier business lender and trusted advisor in our community. Each embody our approach of providing more than simply loan funding – we work hard to partner with business customers throughout different development phases and counsel them on various financing aspects.”

Wroblewski and Stauss are each responsible for a portfolio of commercial lending including: commercial real estate loans, equipment loan, lines of credit, acquisition financing, SBA loans, analyzing and interpreting financial reports, and performing cash flow analysis.

Wroblewski joined the Business Banking department in 2009 as Credit Analyst and became Business Banking Officer in 2012. He oversees the Business Loan Processors and the implementation of the new loan documentation and scanning software.

He possesses a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Northern Michigan University. In addition, he is a graduate of the Wisconsin Bankers Association Commercial Lending School, M&M Area Chamber of Commerce Leadership Academy, and Dale Carnegie High Impact Presentations.

He has been involved in various leadership roles within the bank and in the community including the SNBT Wellness Committee member, Get Smart about Credit presenter, United Way board member, and M&M Area Chamber ambassador.

Stauss joined SNBT in 2011 as Commercial Loan Officer and Credit Analyst. Stauss earned two Bachelor's Degrees from Northern Michigan University, in Marquette, Mich. The first degree is in Business Administration, the other is in Secondary Business Education.

Date: June 9, 2014

He is extensively active in the community and his service includes: Member of Marinette/Menominee Chamber of Commerce, volunteer for the adoration chapel for Holy Family Parish, board member for the M&M Great Lakes Sport Fishermen, board member for the Marinette Gridiron Club, Inc. (youth football program in Marinette), and board member for the recently formed MHS Hall of Fame, Inc.

SNBT's commercial lending experts have a proven track record of Small Business Administration (SBA) loans, 504 fixed asset loans, and traditional SBA 7A term loans. As a community bank, SNBT makes all of its commercial loan decisions locally which means a business owner will meet face to face with the people approving their loan.

Throughout the years, SNBT has received local, regional, state, and national accolades for small business lending. Most notable are the acknowledgements from Entrepreneur Magazine and SBA where SNBT was described as: "Best Bank for Entrepreneurs in the State of Wisconsin," "one of the best banks in the nation for small business," and "a Top Wisconsin Small Business Lender."

The Stephenson National Bank & Trust is a 139-year old independent community bank with $800 million in Bank, Mortgage, and Trust & Investment assets under management. Offices are located in Marinette and Oconto, Wis. and Menominee, Mich. with a Trust & Investment Office in Marquette, Mich.
