

Smiley Earns Bank Award for Outstanding Service

Samantha M. Smiley recently received the 2019 Mary L. Staudenmaier WINGS (Worthy Individual Noted for Generous Service) Award. This award was named in honor of The Stephenson National Bank & Trust's (SNBT) former-chairman and long-time president. The award epitomizes Smiley's unwavering participation in public service for the community.

"We are always happy to give this award to an employee that is truly dedicated to serving the community and we have been able to do so for over a decade," said Daniel J. Peterson, SNBT president and CEO. "It has been appropriately named in honor of Mary Staudenmaier; who demonstrates the importance of serving our area through ceaseless community involvement of her own."

Smiley, Interactive Service Associate who has been with SNBT since 2014, was presented with the WINGS Award due to her extraordinary level of community service. She pledged 275 volunteer hours of service to multiple local organizations including serving as a Den Leader and Assistant Cub Master for Cub Scout Pack 4072, committee leader for the Boy Scout Troop 1472, member of the Beecher-Dunbar-Pembine School District PTO, and parent volunteer for Beecher-Dunbar-Pembine baseball team.

To recognize her commitment to serving, Smiley received the WINGS plaque and her name and photograph has been added to the WINGS display in the Marinette and Pembine locations. In addition, the bank has made a $500 contribution in her name to Pastor Fred's Food Pantry.

As an Interactive Service Associate, Smiley's primary focus is assisting customers at the eTellers and providing them with top-notch customer service. She has previously received the ABA Universal Banker Certificate and has over fifteen
