

Schomer and Orth Receive Bank Awards of Excellence

Kay Schomer and Adam Orth have each received The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT) Award of Excellence. Created in 1988, the award is given to two employees annually. Recipients are nominated by their co-workers for demonstrating excellence in customer service, reliability, responsiveness to customers' and bank employees' needs, superior job knowledge, professionalism, motivation, and productivity.

The first award, given to Kay Schomer, recognizes her excellent customer service and the welcoming atmosphere she provides for employees and customers. Schomer is the Customer Service Representative Supervisor at SNBT's Menominee Office.

Schomer resides in Menominee and has 23 years of banking experience. She is an active volunteer inside and outside of the bank. She educates classrooms in honor of Teach Children to Save Day, and is involved with The Red Horse Parkinson Alliance Group, Treasurer of the Menominee Band Booster Club, and many more.

The second award was given to Adam Orth for his outstanding service and his continuous participation in SNBT volunteering events. Orth is the Business Cash Management Officer at the Marinette Office. He is responsible providing solutions to help individuals and businesses identify their financial objectives.

Orth received a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management and has four years of banking experience. He is heavily involved in his community, including his participation for many years in the Oconto Lions Club, Menominee Downtown Business Association, Community Leadership Academy, along with many more.
