Denby Added to SNBT Trust Department

David H. Denby has joined The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT) as Assistant Vice President & Trust Officer located in the Marinette office at 1820 Hall Avenue. He is responsible for servicing client relationships by providing investment management, estate planning, trust, and IRA services.

“Adding Dave to our growing team of financial experts is right in line with our growth strategy, which is centered around continuing to providing superior investment advice and personal service to our clients by having the most qualified, deep, and professional team,” said Greg Salmen, Senior Vice President & Trust Manager. “Our existing team has worked incredibly hard in recent years to complete additional schooling, licensing, and earn advanced professional designations. Dave comes to us with an MBA, over 15 years of trust and investment experience, and the Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA) designation.”

Currently, five members of the SNBT Trust Department have joined the elite group of just 3,800 CTFAs nationwide. This advanced designation is awarded to individuals who meet personal trust experience and education requirements, as well as pass a rigorous examination on tax law, investment management, personal finance, estate planning, and fiduciary activities. The individual must also comply with a professional code of ethics and standards. Once having achieved the CTFA designation, the individual must complete specified continuing education credits on an ongoing basis.

“This number of qualified financial advisors is unmatched in our region, which makes SNBT stand out as we continue to deliver world-class investment solutions to our clients,” noted John Reinke, SNBT president.

A Chicago native, Denby has 15 years of financial services experience, most recently as Trust Officer with Community Trust & Investment Co. in Pikeville, Ky. He has extensive experience in the banking and trust industries from both large and small organizations across the country including Lexington, Ky; Flint and Owosso, Mich.; and Jacksonville, Fla.

He earned his Master's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Colorado and his Bachelor's Degree from Washington & Lee University. Additionally, he holds the CTFA designation. His recent community service includes being an active member of the Pikeville Rotary and Habitat for Humanity organizations. He and his wife Kathy live in Marinette with one son; they also have two grown children.

The Stephenson National Bank & Trust is a 135-year old independent community bank with assets of $265 million and Trust assets over a quarter of a billion dollars. Offices are located in Marinette and Oconto, Wis. and Menominee, Mich. For more information about The Stephenson National Bank & Trust visit www.snbt.com.
