Fehrenbach Adds to Trust Department Growth at SNBT

Karen Fehrenbach has joined The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT) as Trust Administrator located in the Menominee office at 1111 Tenth Street. She is responsible for assisting with the entire investment process, specifically meeting with clients, processing new accounts, and servicing the ongoing client relationship.

“We are excited to welcome Karen, her years of experience will complement our already robust team,” said Greg Salmen, Senior Vice President and Trust Manager. “In addition to a wealth of knowledge and experience, she brings character and integrity that will help support our growth and be an asset to our clients and their investments.”

Fehrenbach has almost 20 years in financial services, most recently with Wells Fargo Advisors. She graduated from numerous American Bankers Association (ABA) courses: Principles of Banking, Trust Fundamentals, Trust Operations, and Personal Trust School. These intensive trust and estate seminars covered estate planning, trust administration, taxation, and investments. Fehrenbach has been a volunteer with United Way and at Waterfront Festival. She and her husband Ron live in Menominee.

“It is not an accident that SNBT is growing at such a steady pace. As we’ve said before – a successful team can never have too many great players,” said Salmen. “As the region’s largest group of qualified financial advisors, SNBT provides unmatched expertise and experience and we are committed to providing a local resource for our community to rely upon for retirement planning, investing, and estate planning.”
