

SNBT Donates Over $157,500 in Community Contributions

This time of year brings many people together to truly remember the reason for the season: Helping one another. The local community is blessed to have an abundance of non-profit organizations who strive to help hundreds of area residents.

To honor them, and remind them that their efforts do not go unnoticed, The Stephenson National Bank & Trust (SNBT) celebrated with two year-end Contribution Receptions.

“We hold this event every year to show our appreciation for their tireless work and use it as an opportunity to give these wonderful groups a token of our appreciation for their efforts,” said Daniel J. Peterson, SNBT President and CEO. “We were happy to be able to host this event in both our Marinette and Wausaukee Offices. The Wausaukee location is much closer to home for many organizations, and we were grateful for the strong turnout there as well as at the Marinette office.”

Throughout 2019, SNBT made monetary donations totaling over $157,500 to non-profits in Marinette, Menominee, and Oconto Counties. The organizations who received year-end donations are: CASA Marinette Program, CASA of Menominee County, Communities

“In addition to those community donations, we made a 5-year pledge amounting to $150,000, to the recently opened REC Center in Marinette,” continued Peterson. “We wanted to be certain that this pledge did not, in any way, reduce the support we give to other worthy organizations. We’re grateful for our prosperity because it acts like a dividend that we can share with our neighbors.”

Aside from monetary donations, SNBT has been committed to volunteerism with its annual community service pledge. Each year, bank employees pledge an impressive number of volunteer hours, and the hours pledged for 2020 is no exception: 66 employees have pledged about 7,700 hours to 170 organizations.
