

Aftanas Earns Bank Award for Notable Service

Paul Aftanas recently received the 2017 Mary L. Staudenmaier WINGS (Worthy Individual Noted for Generous Service) Award. This award was named in honor of The Stephenson National Bank & Trust's (SNBT) former-chairman and long-time president. The award exemplifies Aftanas's spirit of public service in the community.

"This award has been given to a deserving employee each year for more than a decade, and we are happy to continue that tradition," said Daniel J. Peterson, SNBT president and CEO. "It has been appropriately named in honor of Mary Staudenmaier; who demonstrates the importance of serving our area through ceaseless community involvement of her own."

Aftanas, Trust Officer with SNBT since 2007, received the WINGS Award due to his exceptional level of community service. He pledged 350 volunteer hours as a Board Member on the Marinette County Group Home Association and as a Coach for the M&M Youth Hockey Association.

To recognize his accomplishment, Aftanas received the WINGS plaque and his name and photograph will be added to the WINGS display in the Marinette and Wausaukee locations. In addition, the bank has made a $500 contribution in his name to the Marinette Community REC Center.

As a Trust Officer, Aftanas's primary focus is working closely with clients and their families to plan for their future financial needs, whether saving for college, retirement, or leaving their legacy. He graduated from Michigan State University with an Economics degree, is a Certified IRA Services Professional, and a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional.

# #