

SNBT Welcomes New Trust Officer to Marquette Office

The Stephenson National Bank & Trust is pleased to welcome Heather Addison to its Marquette Trust & Investment Services Office located in Marquette, Mich. Addison has over a decade of non-profit and legal services experience in the Marquette region which will be an asset to the bank's multifaceted Trust team.

"We have enjoyed a lot of success in the 6 years since our Marquette Trust & Investment Services Office was established," said Greg Salmen, SNBT Executive Vice President & Trust Manager. "Heather is joining a very strong team lead by Mike Kolasa and shared by Theresa O'Brien. Together they provide world-class investment planning while retaining focused, personalized service."

Addison brings with her 12 years of experience, previously as an attorney for both Hackney, Grover, Hoover & Bean and for Legal Services of Northern Michigan, a program coordinator for the Alzheimer's Association, and as the Blueprint for Safety Advocate for the Women's Center.

"I joined The Stephenson National Bank & Trust because of its respected reputation in Upper Michigan and Northeastern Wisconsin," said Addison. "It's refreshing to see a team's commitment to doing what is in the client's best interest. Plus they proactively stay current on the latest trends and advanced schooling to ensure they are providing exceptional guidance."

"Heather is a fantastic addition to our Marquette team and our SNBT team as a whole," continued Salmen. "When we expanded into the Marquette region in 2012, it was a smart decision because the office could be built around the right individual, Mike Kolasa. Again, we are expanding in a measured way because Heather is the right individual to continue to building upon this solid foundation."

Addison received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Albion College in Albion, Mich. followed by her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Minnesota Law School. She has also taken courses in Wills & Trusts, Estate Planning, and Tax. She is currently enrolled in the Trust Program at the Cannon Financial Institute and will be earning the Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA) designation over the next two years.

Date: October 9, 2018

Addison serves various community organizations, including JJ Packs, a weekend food program for school kids; as well as serving on the boards for the DeVos Art Museum, the Marquette Regional History Center, and the Marquette Alger Resolution Service. She lives in Marquette with her husband and their two children.
